Viva AHR in Las Vegas!

Next week, Milwaukee Valve is exhibiting at the 2026 AHR Expo in Las Vegas. Featured in a new booth design, Milwaukee Valve will be promoting our full line of commercial valves, and will promote the launch of an exciting new product for commercial HVAC customers.

AHR runs from February 2 thru 4, and is the largest trade show for our industry, providing a forum where a wide variety of manufacturers of all sizes and specialties gather to share ideas and showcase the future of plumbing and HVACR technology.

The AHR Expo is the industry's best place for OEMs, engineers, contractors, distribution, facility operators, architects, educators, and other professionals to experience everything new in HVACR and build the vital relationships that grow businesses and careers. The Expo features more than 1,800 exhibitors, and more than 50,000 visitors aligned to the industry. Co-sponsored by ASHRAE and AHRI, AHR is held concurrently with ASHRAE's Winter Conference.
